

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTH BEND
Master of Science in Education
Elementary Education
Focus Area in English as a New Language*

Name _____ Student ID# _____

BASIC REQUIREMENTS (12-15 Credit Hours)

	Cr Hrs	Offered	Completed	Grade
1. H520 Education and Social Issues <small>This course is considered the first course in the Master of Science program, and includes a significant orientation component. Students may count a maximum of 6 credit hours toward their degree prior to taking H520.</small>	3
2. E535 Elementary School Curriculum	3
3. P515 Child Development	3
4. P507 Assessment in Schools	3
5. K505 Introduction to Special Education for Graduate Students (not required if equivalent course was taken within the last 10 years)	0-3

FOCUS AREA IN ENGLISH AS A NEW LANGUAGE (18 Credit Hours)

	Cr Hrs	Offered	Completed	Grade
1. E545 Advanced Study in the Teaching or Reading in the Elementary School	3
2. X504 Diagnosis of Reading Difficulties in the Classroom	3
2. L559 Trade Books in Elementary Classrooms	3
3. X502 Sociological, Psychological, and Linguistic Perspectives on Reading and Language	3
4. L536 Methods and Materials for Teaching English as a New Language AND M401 Laboratory/Field Experience	3 0
5. M550 Practicum in ESL	3

RESEARCH REQUIREMENTS* (6 Credit Hours)

	Cr Hrs	Offered	Completed	Grade
1. P503 Introduction Research (Checkpoint 2)	3
2. E591 Research Project in Elementary Education (Checkpoint 3)	3

*Course work shall include two semesters of university-level foreign language study, equivalent training or demonstrated proficiency in addition to the above requirements.

If equivalent courses have been taken at the undergraduate level within the past five years, appropriate literacy courses and workshops may be substituted with the approval of an advisor.

 Research Requirements should be completed at the conclusion of your Master of Science program. P503 and E591 are designed to be taken in a two semester sequence.

Date of original conference: _____	Subsequent Advising Sessions:
Advisor: _____	Date	Advisor
Student: _____	_____	_____
	_____	_____