This material is to remain on reserve until ___ / ___ / 200___ or until the end of the semester, which ever comes first. The Reserves Coordinator seeks Copyright Clearance for you. However, if copyright is denied, articles must be removed after one semester on reserve (see Fair Use Guidelines Pamphlet).

Directions:

1. Provide a class syllabus.
2. Give complete citations along with the materials you wish on reserve. Professors are responsible for providing copies of articles, books, etc. Items from the Library's general collection may be also placed on reserve.
3. Provide contact information.
4. Be aware of your Fair Use rights and Copyright responsibilities.

Notice:

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that a user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse or accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law. The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproduction of copyrighted material.
