

FINANCIAL AID TRANSFER INSTRUCTIONS

2008 - 2009

Office of Financial Aid • Indiana University South Bend • P.O. Box 7111 • South Bend, IN 46634-7111

TRANSFERRING TO IU SOUTH BEND FROM ANOTHER COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY

(Please check each step when completed)

Federal financial aid, including loans, is not automatically transferred from one campus or university to another.

If you are transferring in the middle of the academic year (i.e., the spring semester) AND you borrowed a loan for the 2008-2009 academic year through your previous school, make sure the college cancels the spring disbursement. You must inform your current lender that you are changing schools.

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR THESE SERVICES.

- _____ You must be formally admitted to a degree-granting program at IU South Bend. C.C.H.S., nondegree, guest, or stipulated students are not eligible for financial aid. Contact the IU South Bend Office of Admissions at (574) 520-4839, Administration Building 159, if you are unsure of your admission status.
- _____ Complete and return the 2008-2009 IU South Bend Application for Financial Aid to this office.
- _____ If you do not have one, request a federal PIN at www.pin.ed.gov.
- _____ The Federal Processing Center needs to transmit your 2008-2009 FAFSA information to our university. If IU South Bend is not listed, you will need to add it. IU South Bend's Title IV school code is 001816. Make changes to your school code by accessing FAFSA on the Web at www.fafsa.ed.gov and selecting the Make Corrections link. The site will request your social security number, name ID (first two letters of last name), date of birth, and PIN for identification. You may also add IU South Bend by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). Please make sure you have your Data Release Number (DRN), located in the upper right-hand corner of your SAR, available for identification.
- _____ If you received notification from the State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana (SSACI) that you are eligible for an Indiana Higher Education Award, you must notify SSACI that you have changed your college choice to IU South Bend. You can contact SSACI with your change of college choice by the following methods. Please note: Contacting SSACI via the Web is their preferred method.

Web: www.in.gov/ssaci/estudent
U.S. Mail: State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana
150 West Market Street - Suite 500
Indianapolis, IN 46204
Fax: (317) 232-3260

To make this change, you must notify SSACI 30 days before the semester ends.

Federal financial aid, including loans, is not automatically transferred from one campus or university to another.

THERE ARE NO CHARGES FOR THESE SERVICES.

If you are transferring in the middle of the academic year (i.e. the spring semester) AND you borrowed a loan for the 2008-2009 academic year through IU South Bend, make sure that you inform the Office of Financial Aid so we can cancel the spring disbursement. You must tell your current lender that you are changing schools.

_____ Contact the Office of Financial Aid at the school you plan to attend to determine what their requirements are. You may be required to add your new school to your Student Aid Report by going to www.fafsa.ed.gov or by calling 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). You will need your new school's Title IV school code, which can be found on the FAFSA website.

_____ If you received a Federal Perkins Loan as part of your financial aid package at IU South Bend, you must complete an exit interview. Contact the Student Loan Administration at 1-800-458-8756 to complete your exit interview by mail.

_____ If you received any Federal Stafford Loans as part of your financial aid package at IU South Bend, you must complete an exit interview. Please log on to www.iusb.edu/~sbfinaid. On that page, click on "Other Links" located in the left hand margin. Then scroll down to the section "Student Loan Information" and click on "Complete FFELP Loan Exit Counseling." You will enter a SalleMae site called OpenNet. If you received a Federal Direct Stafford loan while attending IUSB, please call the number listed below. Also notify all of your loan servicers or guarantee agencies currently holding your Stafford Loans that you are transferring to another school.

Direct Loan Service Center (DLSC) 1-800-848-0979

If your guarantee agency is not listed above, please contact our office.

_____ If the college or university you are transferring to is located in Indiana and you were eligible for the Indiana Higher Education Award at IU South Bend, you must notify the State Student Assistance Commission of Indiana (SSACI) that you are transferring to a new school.
