

Why Study Abroad?

- To learn about another culture
- To learn another language
- To challenge yourself
- To meet new people
- To become more tolerant of differences
- To acquire a “world view”
- To learn more about your own culture
- To build your resume
- To enhance your career marketability
- To develop your capacity for living in a world that is increasingly diverse, complex, and interdependent
- To improve our nation’s ability to interact with other cultures
- To prepare for the global workforce

Dr. Scott Sernau
Director of International Programs

DW 2277, 574-520-4402
ssernau@iusb.edu

IU Study Abroad

IU Bloomington offers more than 60 overseas study programs in 14 languages (including English), in 24 countries and nearly every field of study.

For more help see www.indiana.edu/~overseas or contact Todd Karr, study abroad advisor at tmkarr@indiana.edu

If you have a disability and need assistance, special arrangements can be made to accommodate most needs.

Indiana University South Bend
Office of International Programs

Study Abroad

Information

International Programs
1722 Hildreth Street
South Bend, IN 46634

574-520-4402
www.iusb.edu/~sbintl

IU South Bend Study Abroad Programs

IUSB Study Abroad Programs

Language, Culture, Society, Mexico Every Summer Session II (6 credits)

This is a unique interdisciplinary summer program. Students receive 6 credits, 3 each in Spanish and Sociology. Provides accommodation and meals in the homes of Mexican families.

Tropical Marine Biology, Belize Every other Year (3 credits)

The Summer interim program provides the opportunity to get marine biology field experience. The course will be divided between organizational and introductory class sessions at IUSB and a 9 day field course in Jamaica.

Social Action Project, Africa

The action research project uses social science research to understand change to real life problems. For more information contact Dr. De Bryant at 520-4447

Language, Culture, Society, Costa Rica, Winter Break

Every other Year (3 credits)

A distinctive glimpse into a country trying to balance land preservation with economic growth. With housing provided by host families students get a personal observation of Costa Rican life.

The New European Union, Brussels, Luxembourg, Strasbourg, Paris (3 to 6 credits)

Every other May

This program is an opportunity to learn about a new era of political and economic union in Europe. Students explore and attend sessions at different European political institutions.

Becoming Modern for London-Paris trip

Every other Summer (6 credits)

Three weeks in London and Paris during Summer I to study the literature and culture of these two great cities at the brink of the development of modern industrial society.

Florence

Every other Summer (6 credits)

Explore Florence—the city with a deep history of art—through the lens of your camera.

IUSB Exchange Programs

University of Ulster, Northern Ireland

www.ulster.ac.uk

Length: Summer, semester, or academic year. Some campus housing is available.

Catholic University, Eichstaett, Germany

www.ku-eichstaett.de

Length: Semester or academic year. Language of instruction is German. Special language and culture courses are available in the summer. The business school is located in nearby Ingolstadt, where some business classes are taught in English.

Université de Sud (Toulon-Var), France www.univ-tln.fr

Length: a term or academic year. The language of instruction is French, or in some cases, English. French as a second language courses are also available. Some campus housing is available.

Scholarships and Financial Aid

All loans, grants, and scholarships for which participants are eligible at IUSB can also be used for study abroad programs. The IUSB website contains a link to a list of scholarships, or for more information contact:

All study abroad programs require a minimum GPA of 2.75 and at least Sophomore standing, and for graduate students a minimum GPA of 3.0.

For more information and application forms for all study abroad or exchange programs, please see :

Office of International Programs

www.iusb.edu/~sbintl