

2007

Alternative Spring Break

spend time helping others

March 10 - 17, 2007

Cost

$150, includes transportation, lodging and meals while in Biloxi.

Accommodations

Participants will be staying at a volunteer village.

Activities

Food/clothing distribution, construction, health care, etc.

Credit

Receive 1 academic credit hour by enrolling in LAS COAS S200 (at an additional cost of $160.85. Professor consent is required.)

Information

Learn more about the experiences you will have in Biloxi at the information sessions provided on Jan. 30, Feb. 7 and Feb. 13 at 2:30 p.m. at the SAC room 225.

Interested?

Find more information and pick up your Participation Application at the Student Life Office (SAC 130), Community Links Office (Admin. 107), Nursing and Health Professions Office (NS 456) or the Information Center (Admin. Lobby). Download the form at www.iusb.edu/~sblife/AlternativeSpringBreak.

IU South Bend students, faculty and staff are invited to participate in a Student Life - Project L E A D Alternative Spring Break trip to Biloxi, Mississippi to continue in the disaster recovery efforts of Hurricane Katrina. Your contributions of time and talents will be greatly appreciated.

Application Deadline is Feb. 23. Space is limited. Sign up and participation is on a first come, first served basis.

www.iusb.edu/~sblife

Log on and read the student, faculty and staff volunteer blogs and photos from last year's Alternative Spring Break trip to Biloxi.

Sponsored by: IU South Bend Student Life - Project L E A D, Student Government Association, Titan Productions, Community Links and the Division of Nursing and Allied Professiona.