

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTH BEND

The David Starr Jordan Scholarship

PURPOSE

The David Starr Jordan Foreign Studies Scholarship is intended to encourage undergraduate and graduate students at IU South Bend to enhance their education by residence and study abroad. Applicants may be majors in any academic field.

CRITERIA

Applicants must:

1. Be a degree seeking student enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate program on the IU South Bend campus
2. Have a minimum 2.75/4.0 IU grade point average and be in good academic standing
3. Enroll in a minimum of 3 credits in an IU South Bend-based, OSAC-approved, overseas studies or exchange program

Preference is given to applicants who:

1. Have not previously lived outside the United States for an appreciable period of time
2. Are enrolled in one of the shorter term programs or the Ulster Exchange program

Application requirements:

1. Applicants must provide a signed statement of purpose which address both of the following:
  - a. How the foreign studies program contributes to their overall academic, career, and personal goals
  - b. Why this scholarship is necessary to enable them to participate in the program
2. Provide a letter of recommendation from an IU South Bend faculty member who can evaluate their potential to succeed in and benefit from this overseas study program
3. Provide a current unofficial IU South Bend academic transcript
