COURSE OVERVIEW
This course examines the historical development of the U.S. correctional system; the study of administration of local, state, and federal corrections programs, including jails, probation, community corrections, and prisons. Topics include the study of punishment rationales, current correctional policies, and possibilities for reform.

A variety of methods will be used to cover material, including lecture, class room discussion, video, and group projects.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
1. Provide the student with information about the history of corrections
2. Explore various correctional philosophies
3. Examine the challenges faced in contemporary corrections
4. Develop an awareness of correctional alternatives
5. Critically analyze and discuss current events in corrections

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Participation Policy
It is expected that you will do the reading assignments prior to class and be ready to participate in class discussions, offering insight and understanding of the material.

Attendance
Students are expected to attend all classroom sessions. Class roll will be taken. There are no provisions for “excused” or “unexcused” absences in this course. We will follow a no fault policy: you are either here or you are not. All absences will be treated the same.

If you are absent, it is up to you to find out from another classmate what you missed. There will be no makeup tests unless prior arrangements were made.

Whether you attend or not, written assignments are due on the designated day without exception. If you have to miss class, you may send your assignment with another student or leave it in the section office. The following schedule will be used for the attendance portion of your grade:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Misses</th>
<th>Total Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0-1</td>
<td>+10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>0</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3+</td>
<td>-5 points for each miss</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Exams and Quizzes
There will be four scheduled examinations during the semester. These will be multiple choice, true/false, matching, or essay questions. The exams will be based on lecture materials, reading assignments, and class discussions. Point values of the exams will be determined at the time the exams are given. There will be no make-up exams unless prior arrangements have been made.

Quizzes may be given at any time without notice by the instructor. Point value will be determined at the time quizzes are given.

Homework
Homework assignments may be given at the instructor’s discretion. Point value will be determined at the time of the assignment.

All homework assignments will be typed or computer generated with 1 inch margins and double spaced. This is a college course; therefore, papers should be written at the college level. Grammar and spelling will count.

Term Paper/Presentation
Each student will be required to choose a topic or concept presented in the text and submit a research paper on that topic. Topics must have the instructor’s approval. The purpose of the paper is to illustrate understanding of course-related material beyond what is described in the text. A minimum of six resources must be listed in your bibliography. A maximum of three of those resources can be from the internet. Others must be from professional journals or publications. Proper form should be used; either MLA or APA format is acceptable. Be sure to cite properly - do not plagiarize. 100 points.

A presentation and summary of the topic will be presented to the class and will be a part of the overall grade. Students may use training aids, i.e. chalkboard, overhead transparencies, etc. to enhance their presentation. Advise the instructor what aids are required prior to your presentation. 50 points.
WRITING CENTER
The ability to write well is an essential part of most professions, and is a fundamental requirement for all SPEA courses. You can improve your writing skills by utilizing the IUSB WRITING CENTER. The Center is staffed by experienced writing consultants who will help you develop the skills required to prepare assignments that meet the high standards of SPEA instructors.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
Work (tests, homework, papers, etc.) that you do for this course must be your own. Your conduct must conform to the Indiana University Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct pages 17-18. This document is also available on the web at http://www.iusd.edu/~stulife Code of Student Rights, Responsibilities and Conduct Section III.

COURTESY
All students will treat others with respect at all times. We may disagree on certain issues and enter into a healthy dialog; however, we must keep an open mind and respect other student’s differing opinions and points of view. Remember to focus on the issue, not the person.

All pagers and cell phones are to be either shut off or put in the vibrate mode. If you need to respond to a call or page, please leave the room so as not to disrupt the rest of the class.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS
If a student has a disability that will require special testing or classroom accommodations, please see me during the first weeks of class.

GRADES
Grades will be determined by the percentage of total aggregate points accumulated by each student. Letter grade values are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>98 – 100</td>

INDIANA UNIVERSITY SOUTH BEND
COMMUNICATION POLICY

The following is the new policy adopted by the Chancellor's cabinet regarding email communication. If you have any questions regarding the following policy, please contact your advisor.

Indiana University South Bend is pleased to announce that electronic mail (email) is now an official means of communication with students. You will benefit by receiving timely, accurate, and up-to-date communication about matters affecting students including:

- financial aid and scholarships
- registration
- billing notification
- university policy statements
- university services and events
- course requirements
- degree completion and/or graduation
- judicial and administrative actions
- academic calendar

To set up your email account, visit the website, http://itaccounts.iu.edu and follow the instructions on the screen. If you encounter any problems in establishing your account, visit the IT Helpdesk in DW 1245.

A student's failure to receive or read official university communications sent to the student's official email address does not absolve the student from knowing and complying with the content of the official communication.

It is recommended that students check email messages at least once daily. The university provides a simple mechanism for students to forward email from the official university email address to another email address of the student's choice. However, students who choose to have email forwarded to another email address do so at their own risk.
