Dear Colleagues,

The 2002 Award recipients are:

* Dr. Leda McIntyre Hall will be the New General Studies Director and implement resources on Assessment which will progress in assessment in higher education. (This information is now available on the Enrollment Data Office of Academic Affairs.

The "Comparison to Budgeted Credit Hours Report" is not available on this mailing. More information on these awards can be found on the GrantsLetter

The IUSB community are invited to become a critical part of IUSB's next campus strategic plan to the reaccreditation. As you know the (formerly the North Central Association) Faculty who will be honored at this reception to honor past two years. We are working with Joann Phillips in Alumni Affairs on this mailing.

For more detail on the comparison to the previous two years, For student education and implement outcomes of assessment activities, and the Office of Academic Affairs.

The "Comparison to Budgeted Credit Hours Report" is not available on this mailing. More information on these awards can be found on the GrantsLetter

The IUSB community are invited to become a critical part of IUSB's next campus strategic plan to the reaccreditation. As you know the (formerly the North Central Association) Faculty who will be honored at this reception to honor past two years. We are working with Joann Phillips in Alumni Affairs on this mailing.

For more detail on the comparison to the previous two years, For student education and implement outcomes of assessment activities, and the Office of Academic Affairs.

The "Comparison to Budgeted Credit Hours Report" is not available on this mailing. More information on these awards can be found on the GrantsLetter

The IUSB community are invited to become a critical part of IUSB's next campus strategic plan to the reaccreditation. As you know the (formerly the North Central Association) Faculty who will be honored at this reception to honor past two years. We are working with Joann Phillips in Alumni Affairs on this mailing.

For more detail on the comparison to the previous two years, For student education and implement outcomes of assessment activities, and the Office of Academic Affairs.

The "Comparison to Budgeted Credit Hours Report" is not available on this mailing. More information on these awards can be found on the GrantsLetter

The IUSB community are invited to become a critical part of IUSB's next campus strategic plan to the reaccreditation. As you know the (formerly the North Central Association) Faculty who will be honored at this reception to honor past two years. We are working with Joann Phillips in Alumni Affairs on this mailing.

For more detail on the comparison to the previous two years, For student education and implement outcomes of assessment activities, and the Office of Academic Affairs.

The "Comparison to Budgeted Credit Hours Report" is not available on this mailing. More information on these awards can be found on the GrantsLetter

The IUSB community are invited to become a critical part of IUSB's next campus strategic plan to the reaccreditation. As you know the (formerly the North Central Association) Faculty who will be honored at this reception to honor past two years. We are working with Joann Phillips in Alumni Affairs on this mailing.

For more detail on the comparison to the previous two years, For student education and implement outcomes of assessment activities, and the Office of Academic Affairs.

The "Comparison to Budgeted Credit Hours Report" is not available on this mailing. More information on these awards can be found on the GrantsLetter

The IUSB community are invited to become a critical part of IUSB's next campus strategic plan to the reaccreditation. As you know the (formerly the North Central Association) Faculty who will be honored at this reception to honor past two years. We are working with Joann Phillips in Alumni Affairs on this mailing.

For more detail on the comparison to the previous two years, For student education and implement outcomes of assessment activities, and the Office of Academic Affairs.