Dear Colleagues,

The very Taliban that ran over the jet are the jittery goblins and the fires and bombs, and the shrapnel from the goblins and the fires and bombs are flying over the city as I am writing this message. I am sitting here as the city is being bombed, and I am writing this message as the city is being bombed. I am writing this message as the city is being bombed and I am sitting here as the city is being bombed.

Sincerely,
Your Name
