The 2013 Lewis S. Armstrong Award Winner

Elizabeth Naquin Borger

Financial advisor and civic leader, Elizabeth Naquin Borger, brings her education and business management experience to the Michiana community. Liz graduated from the University of Notre Dame and has a master’s degree from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University. She has lectured on marketing and strategic planning at the University of Notre Dame, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, Drake University, and the Harvard Business School.

Ms. Borger has more than twenty years experience in the financial industry. Liz was a member of the Premier Advisors Group and the highest ranking female at Inland Steel Company. She is currently Senior Vice President/Investments for Stifel, with an emphasis on comprehensive investment planning, retirement planning, estate planning, charitable giving and business succession plans.

Ms. Borger is also an active civic leader. Her commitment to this community is shown through her leadership roles with several non-profit organizations. Liz was the president of the Elkhart County Symphony and the Notre Dame Club of St. Joseph Valley. She held board positions for Loveway, The Elkhart Center, the Toradze Piano Institute IU South Bend; Wellfield Botanic Gardens, the Elkhart County 4-H Fair and WNIT-TV Michiana Public Broadcasting. Liz currently serves on the boards of the Elkhart County Community Foundation, Shakespeare in Performance at the University of Notre Dame, and Premier Arts.

Last year Liz was recognized with the Woman of the Year award by the regional YWCA and also the inaugural Woman of the Year award from the Elkhart Chamber of Commerce.
