Indiana University economists will be at the IU South Bend campus on November 11th for their annual look at the world, national and regional economies. The panel will discuss how the changing economic environment will affect business and public policy decisions.

Panel members include: Ellie Mafi-Kreft, Clinical Assistant Professor of Business and Economics, Kelley School of Business; Robert Neal, Associate Professor of Finance, Kelley School of Business; Timothy Slaper, Director of Economic Analysis, Kelley School of Business; and Lane David, Assistant Professor of Economics, Indiana University South Bend. Robert Ducoffe, Dean and Professor of Marketing, is serving as moderator for the discussions and the question and answer session that will follow the presentations.

For additional information please visit our website at:
http://www.iusb.edu/~buse/annual_reviews.shtml

SEATING IS LIMITED:
R.S.V.P. by Tuesday, November 8, 2011 to kamforsy@iusb.edu

Thanks to The Chamber of Commerce of St. Joseph County for assistance in promoting this event.