Women’s and Gender Studies

• April Lidinsky presented at the Seneca Falls Dialogues conference, Oct. 17-19, with Krista Bailey and IU Bloomington junior, Grace Lidinsky-Smith (in photo with the signers of the Declaration of Sentiments and Resolutions, 1848). Our panel was titled, "Unusual Suspects in Sustainability: Expanding Circles for Feminist Activism."
Womens and Gender Studies, cont’d.

- Andrea Rusnock presented "Vladimir Stasov and Peasant Embroidery," at the national conference of Association for Slavic, East European, and Eurasian Studies (ASEEES).
- She also chaired the panel "New Narratives in Russian Art: Painting, Photography, Print" at the ASEEES conference.
Sociology and Anthropology

Dawn Rutecki was the sole author on two conference papers:

a) Burial 62 at Spiro: Understanding Material Connections. Southeastern Archaeological Conference, Annual Meeting

b) Tiny but Not Trivial: What small fauna can tell us about diet at Spiro. Plains Anthropological Conference, Annual Meeting

- Dawn also published this: Blackmore, Chelsea, and Dawn M. Rutecki. (2014). Introducing the Queer Archaeology Interest Group: Who we are and why we need your support. The SAA Archaeological Record
Jay VanderVeen received a UCET/FACET Faculty Development Grant.

Betsy Lucal has been appointed to a three-year term on the ASA Distinguished Contributions to Teaching Award committee.

Zach Schrank was invited to present "Consuming Consciously and Comprehensively in Local Organic Markets" at Grand Valley State University.
Faculty Awarded Grants!

• Research and Development Grant Winners
  ▪ Lisa Zwicker
  ▪ Shaun Nichols-Boyle
  ▪ Chu He

• Faculty Research Grant Winners
  ▪ Henry Scott
  ▪ Joshua Wells
  ▪ Micheline Nilsen
  ▪ Bobby Meyer-Lee
Nine members of the IUSB Physics Club attended the "Zone 8" meeting of the Society of Physics Students at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign which featured a talk by Nobel Laureate Tony Leggett in addition to networking, career / graduate school panel discussions, a Fermi problem competition, and other research presentations.
• Anne Magnan-Park gave a paper entitled "Translation as Occasional Writing" at the American Literary Translators Association in Milwaukee. She also presented her translation of François Cheng's poetry.

• Bobby Meyer-Lee ran the research seminar “Form and the Literary in the Middle Ages” at Yale University, where he also gave the invited talk, “What the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Tells Us about Form and the Literary in Lydgate’s Troy Book."

English, cont’d.

• Bobby Meyer-Lee received a Faculty Research Grant for his current monograph project, “Valuing Middle English Literature across the Divide.”

• Kyoko Takanashi present the paper “Categorizing The Pickwick Papers: Transportation and the Epistemology of the Novel” at the North American Victorian Studies Association Conference in London, Ontario
Tom Murphy presented "'Face It and Keep Going': Remembering D-Day" to the History Club, November 20, 2014.
Psychology

Psychology, cont’d.

Psychology, cont’d.

Psychology, cont’d.

- Sorah Stein was awarded a $500 Associate Faculty Travel Award to attend the Applied Behavior Analysis International Conference.