A minor in EAST ASIAN STUDIES at IUSB consists of a 15 credit hour program to be arranged in consultation with an East Asian Studies advisor. The program for a minor must be arranged at least one semester before graduation. 6 of these credit hours must be from the “core” courses, 6 credit hours be elective, in addition to one 400 level course or an equivalent work in a 300-level course or an independent study with an East Asian Studies faculty. East Asian studies Minors must encompass least 2 geographic areas (such as China and Japan) and 2 different departments of academic discipline.

NAME: __________________________________________

MAJOR: _________________________________________

I.D. #_________________________ GRADUATION DATE:________________________

COURSES ALREADY TAKEN:_________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

COURSES IN PROGRESS OR SCHEDULED TO BE TAKEN:

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

___________________________________
STUDENT’S SIGNATURE

___________________________________
ADVISER’S SIGNATURE

DATE

__ Department Copy
__ Adviser’s Copy
__ Student’s Copy