ACCOMODATIONS

In London, students and faculty will stay at University of London Halls, which is in the heart of vibrant Bloomsbury. The halls are surrounded by bustling shops and eateries and offer quick access to several tube stations.

In Edinburgh, students will lodge at a modern hostel at the base of the Royal Mile, which terminates at Edinburgh Castle. The hostel is only minutes from Holyrood House and the natural wonders of Salisbury Crags and Arthur’s Seat. Both lodgings include internet access and kitchen facilities.

APPLY TODAY!

Applications are available from the Office of International Programs and the program instructors.

For further information, contact:

Lee Kahan, Dept. of English
DW3161  (574) 520-4305
lkahan@iusb.edu

Kyoko Takanashi, Dept. of English
DW3131  (574) 520-4802
ktakanas@iusb.edu

Visit us on Facebook at IUSBLondonEdinburgh

Indiana University South Bend

Office of International Programs

---

LONDON AND EDINBURGH

SUMMER I 2013

May 13 – June 24
(Travel Dates: June 7 – 22)
COURSE THEME
We will examine the role that key Enlightenment ideals played in the modernization of England and Scotland after these countries merged under the Acts of Union (1703). We will also attend to how those ideals informed the attempts of writers in various disciplines (literature, philosophy, science, and economics) to imagine the nation in its new form.

CREDITS
Students will receive 6 credits for ENG-T390 and ENG-E302. These courses fulfill the Literary and Intellectual Traditions (Gen Ed) and the Western Culture Before 1800 (CLAS) requirements.

VISIT Edinburgh Castle and Holyrood House—home of Mary, Queen of Scots.

EXPLORE a 17th century neighborhood buried beneath the streets of Edinburgh.

EXPERIENCE the lifestyle of 18th century Londoners by touring their homes, donning their fashions, and dining in an 18th century coffee house.

LEARN how to navigate planes, trains, and subways like a seasoned traveller.

PROGRAM FEE
The program fee is $3,000, plus tuition for six credit hours. This fee includes airfare, instructional fees, lodging, some meals, and inter-city travel. Students must also purchase student health insurance for $24.00.

FINANCIAL AID
Loans, grants, and scholarships for which students are eligible at Indiana University may be used for the IUSB London-Paris program. All participants are urged to apply for the David Starr Jordan Scholarships. Forms are available from International Programs, the World Language Studies office, and the program.

APPLICATION CRITERIA
The London-Edinburgh Program consists of two, three-hour courses: ENG-T390 and ENG-E302. Students must sign up for both. Undergraduate students must have a minimum 2.75 GPA, graduate students a 3.0 GPA. Sophomore standing at the start date of the program is required, unless approved by the program directors. Students enrolled at any Indiana University campus may apply.

DEADLINES
Applications are due Friday, February 22, 2013. A non-refundable deposit of $700 is due by Friday, March 1, 2013. Charges for full airfare and other trip costs will be posted to student accounts and may be non-refundable after May 1.