Select East Asia Studies Courses for Spring 2015

Please check the international programs website for the complete list of courses that satisfy the minor requirements:
https://www.iusb.edu/intl-programs/international-curriculum/index.php

*Note please double check the schedule of classes because times and locations of these courses may change

Language

EALC-J 202 Second Year Japanese 2 (3 CR)
4234  MW  02:30P-03:45P  DW 1170  Green Y

EALC-J 302 Third Year Japanese 2 (3 CR)
4235  TR  02:30P-03:45P  NS 111  Green Y

Review of grammatical points acquired in the first and second year of Japanese. More advanced levels of speaking, reading, writing and listening proficiency.

EALC-J 402 Fourth-Year Japanese II (3 CR)
33306  TR  02:30P-03:45P  NS 111  Green Y

Continuation of J401. To develop advanced skills in Japanese for speaking, reading, and writing.

EALC-J 451RDGS Japanese Newspaper/Journals (3CR)
33129  TR  02:30P-03:45P  NS 111  Green Y

History

HIST-H 237 Traditional East Asian Civilization (3 CR)
33488  TR  11:30A-12:45P  DW2105  Ren K

A chronological and comparative survey of the civilizations of East Asia (China, Japan, and Korea) from the Neolithic period to the eighteenth century. Surveys political and social changes as well as developments in philosophy, literature, and the arts, with emphasis on the interrelationship among the cultures of East Asia.

HIST-T 390 World War II in East Asia
MW  10:00-11:15  TBD  Ren K

A comprehensive examination of the Sino-Japanese War of 1937-45 and Asia-Pacific War of 1941-45, focusing on political and military history, cultural and social developments, as well as connections to the global Second World War. Themes include imperialism and revolution, diplomacy and international politics, refugees and relief, famine and the environment, resistance and collaboration, labor and economy, wartime literature and arts, as well as postwar history and memory.
HIST-G 410 CHINA, JAPAN AND THE UNITED STATES IN THE 20TH AND 21ST CENTURY (3 CR)
Online ARR ARR ARR Diana Chen Lin

Discusses the relationship between China, Japan, and the US in the 20th and 21st centuries. We study the mutual perceptions and interactions of the three countries over the 20th Century, and examine how the perceptions and memories of these interactions impact their relationships in the 21st Century. This course offered every other year.

HIST-G 465 CHINESE REVOL/COMMUNIST REGIME (3 CR)
29976 MW 01:00P-02:15P DW3260 Ren K

History of modern China through the lens of the numerous revolutions – Republican, Nationalist, Communist, Cultural – that marked the twentieth century. Emphasizes socioeconomic and political conditions as well as cultural and intellectual factors, including the legacy of revolution for contemporary Chinese state and society.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

POL-S-Y 107 INTRO TO COMPARATIVE POLITICS (3 CR)
30816 TR 08:30A-09:45A ARR Lisoni C

Examines countries around the world to investigate fundamental questions about politics. Topics include democratic development, promotion of economic prosperity, maintenance of security, and management of ethnic and religious conflict. Critical thinking skills encouraged. Cases for comparison include advanced industrialized democracies, Communist and formerly Communist countries, and developing countries.

RELIGION

REL-R 153 RELIGIONS OF ASIA (3CR)
5675 TR 02:30P 03:45M DW 1175 Stockman

Modes of thinking, views of the world and the sacred, the human predicament and paths to freedom, human ideals and value systems in the religions of India, China, and Japan.

TELECOMMUNICATIONS

TEL-T 313 COMPARATIVE MEDIA SYSTEMS (3 CR)
33091 W 02:30P-05:00P NS 106 Obata Y

Comparative Media Systems - Japan, Asia and the World in Mass Media. This course offers examination of mass media and popular culture in Japan, China, North Korea and Bhutan. The course was originally listed as TEL R-404, but now the course number is TEL-T 313. Please let your students know.