Scrapbook & Recent Events

Spring & Summer 2002 semester Mail may be addressed to:

ALUMNI, ATTENTION!
The M.A. in Applied Psychology program will admit USA and some from Center for the Study &

CONGRATULATIONS!
In addition to presenting their research
in Princeton Theological Seminary and the John Templeton

Two IUSB Psychology majors had papers accepted for the 2002.

Advanced Labs in the coming semesters:

The student and as the other prerequisites (P211, P354) to be

The Coalition is a state-wide effort to develop a suicide prevention of Suicide (a federally funded conference).

If you have accomplishments or other events
you would like to see included here, please forward them to

Departmental Awards
2002

Undergraduate Research Excellence/Recognition

Department Office:
Department HomePage

Graduate School Admissions

New Course for the Fall 2002

CONGRATULATIONS!
The area code
for the South Bend area of Indiana has changed from 219 to

Dr. Johnson was invited to participate in an exciting

Catherine was Dr.

Carolyn

Kerr

Angela R.

Jean M.

Joseph

BACCHUS Committee

TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED

In the coming semesters:

If you have accomplishments or other events
you would like to see included here, please forward them to

Parents' Wants and

Wednesday, March 26th as the last of the year's Women's Studies

Chris

Tiffany

Coryn

Dr. McIntosh's address were covered by Indianapolis radio

Ritchie are Jamie

Dr. McIntosh's address were covered by Indianapolis radio

The Department of Psychology held a

Department of Psychology students below were recently accepted

Chris L. Coryn

Chris

Catherine

Catherine

M.S.W. Program to begin

Michigan University.

At the request of the Department of Psychology, Dr. Wolosin is a clinician and

The area code
for the South Bend area of Indiana has changed from 219 to

The area code
for the South Bend area of Indiana has changed from 219 to

All rights reserved.